ABOUT HOME

This area is known and loved for its superb access to fishing, deer hunting, turkey hunting, duck hunting, boating, and water skiing. Bruceton is a small rural town with moderate temperatures in all four seasons located along Hwy 70, just 20 miles away from the Kentucky Lake area of the Tennessee River. This brick home is in rural neighborhood with 1 car attached garage as well as a two-car carport. Driveway and carport are freshly asphalted in 2005. Home has city water supply. Small storage building in backyard. Attic has built-in ladder access for additional storage. Excellent and friendly neighbors – just what you’d expect from a small town. Owner financing may be negotiated. Many pictures available by email, just ask.
