ABOUT HOME

Come and see this beautifully renovated 1880 home in Xenia's Water Street Historic District. Every room has been renovated with the home's historical integrity in mind, including the bathrooms, kitchen and laundry room. This home retains much of its original character and beauty including wood floors, built-in cabinets, marble fireplaces and French doors. Several architectural details have been added as well to enhance this home's beauty and practicality. The downstairs consists of a large living area, dining room, breakfast room, spacious kitchen and half bath. The upstairs consists of the laundry room, full bath, and three bedrooms. Other updates to this home include updated plumbing and electrical, new vinyl or storm windows, new gutters and recent exterior painting. This home is located in an active historic district of Xenia.
