Elegant and Luxurious! It is a rare moment when a spectacular residential opportunity presents itself to the real estate buyer. A newly constructed family home, patiently sculptured in fine detail, offers a new definition for a "quality of life investment." This property, completed and available for immediate occupancy, is modestly priced at $795,000.

Approaching from the 300' private drive, this magnificent structure has been erected delicately on a sloped wood line. The countless straight lines at multiple angles from the hip roofs crisscross over arches, columns and a hand-scratched stucco exterior. The daylight flows through dozens of Pella transoms and circle head windows bouncing off 7' hardwood doors and tiled floors.

The inviting stone stairway glides you through the arched, solid entry door that is protected from the harsh elements by a columned portico. Feeling the warmth from sun drenched air reflected off 9' ceilings and polished, gleaming floors, you will be visually struck by the two story foyer balcony and semi-circle, open oak staircase.

The large kitchen, imported from Italy, with granite surfaces displaying strength and grace, perimeter and island cabinetry lead your vision to the expansive Mountain View and the balance of your 3.7 acres.
