ABOUT HOME

Home is in a former party store and property is zoned B2 which allows for many, many different type of uses including its present use as a home.

There is a 4 block crawlspace under entire building in lieu of a basement.

Water is supplied by the city of Alpena.

With its location being only 2 miles from the city of Alpena all necessary services are within a 5 minute drive including a very fine regional medical center.

And finally there is the beautiful body of water known as Thunder Bay off of Lake Huron which provides some great fishing and boating. Thunder Bay now also carries a designation of National Marine Sanctuary and Underwater Preserve.
