ABOUT HOME

Come see this charming home and be prepared to fall in love. This beautiful two-story home sits on over 10 acres of land, perfect for horses or whatever your hobby may be. When you enter the home you will notice a large mud room that leads to the eat-in kitchen. There is an abundance of cupboard space and many convenient features like pull out drawers in the pantry and a huge lazy susan. Off the kitchen is the formal dining room. This room boasts an amazing built in hutch with all the space you would need for a family dinner. On the main floor there is also a family room as well as a living room. The family room has a spectacular stained glass window and the living room has more built in bookcases. As you make your way upstairs there is a delightful built in bench in the front foyer that adds to the charm of the house. All bedrooms are located on the second level, and off the master there is room to put a patio over the front of the home. Call today for your personal tour.
