ABOUT HOME

Our home is located in a part of the country, and is designed for an active retired couple. Huge lot, big garage, heatable shop. Heat only the lower floor for every day use, but lots of room upstairs for guests. While remodeling I found 100 year old hand hewn logs hiding under plaster walls I rechinked and oil finished the logs. The exterior is zero maintenance vinyl siding and steel roof. New plumbing and wiring. New windows and doors. Under utilized golf course, large lake and large blocks of public lands in the near vicinity. Low utility rates and taxes.
