ABOUT HOME

Currently this property is a Private Estate
TWO HOUSES ON THIS PROPERTY

LOCATION, LOCATION, Prime Property Can be rezoned for Patio Homes, or can be used for many other types of development. As you drive up the majestic tree line driveway to "WindyTop" one of the most beautiful vistas comes into view. You soon feel like you have gone back in time to another century. This property consists of two houses. The ranch house and the beautiful Queen Ann style home was built by William Peter Huff around 1885. This lovely old home was called "Windytop" there is some reference to the place as "Windycrest". The house, the bay windows, balconies and the pointed arch windows of the earlier gothic style. The beautiful old house still stands proudly as it has for over a hundred years. This unique house should be appreciated and preserved. This beautiful old historic home is on the market after thirty-six years. Of special interest is the curved staircase made of solid walnut. All Eastlake brass hardware. This house still stands as it was built. It has not been remodeled. It qualifies for the State Historical Register and also the National Historical Register. This property consists of 10 acres all of it is in lawn. This property is close to the interstate, airport, shopping center, schools and one mile to our local civic center and yet one does not realize this when you are standing beneath the beautiful old oak trees and hear the breeze gently blowing through the branches of the trees. The view is awesome. This property can be used for various things, great location. or perhaps someone would like to do something else with the grounds. All utilities are on property, natural gas, sewer, water, electrical, paved driveway etc. One only has to see it to fall in love with this beautiful property.
