ABOUT HOME

Completely remodeled farm house on 8+ beautiful acres. This home was originally built in 1900 but has been professionally remodeled by a licensed contractor. This property also includes two garages, the original barn, fruit trees and a stocked trout pond. The home and garages are white vinyl sided with green metal roofs to match. A white picket fence surrounds the home and garden area. Young Creek flows in front of the home and feeds your own private trout pond. Beautiful entrance leads you to privacy and seclusion. Landscaping is exceptional. The home features three bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths with two covered porches and a deck. The kitchen in this home has a brick floor and it's own fireplace. This home is located in Grayson County 1/2 mile from excellent fishing in Fox Creek or 1 1/2 miles from the New River. The Mount Rogers National Forest and Grayson Highlands State Park are only a twenty minute drive. Call for an appointment please. Thank you!
